Ladies' Garden Party Gown, Consisting of Ladies' Shirred Walst With Yoke, No. 871. end Ladies' Chreular Ekirt With Shirred Flounce, No. 8874—Transparent woolen fabrics such as etamine, veiling and canvas are made over soft taffeta lining of self color. Strong contrasts are not favored at present; in fact, several shades of one color carefully blended are considered the height of elegance.

The gown flustrated is made of pale-blue veiling with ash-colored lace for trimming. The walst is made over a glove-fitted lining that closes in the center front. The back is plain across the shoulders and drawn down close to the belt, where slight fullness is branced in small plaits.

Eands of lace alternate with folds of the Pands of lace alternate with folds of the velling in the round yake. The full fronts are shirred and arranged to outline the yoke, blousing well over the narrow black velvet belt. A transperent lace collar completes the neck.

The full puff sleeves are shirred at the top and attached to short fitted cars. They are gathered at the lower edge and finished with narrow lace cuffs, over which they droop well at the back.

The skirt is of circular shaping, fitted smoothly around the waist and hips with small darts. It closes invisibly in the censmoothly around the waist and hips with small darts. It closes invisibly in the center back in habit effect, and is sheath-fitting to the knee. The lower edge is shaped in deep scallops that are trimmed with lace.

The flounce is attached to the skirt, forming its lower portion. It is finely shirred between the scallops, and falls in long, graceful folds to the floor, training slightly at the back. A band of lace is used for foot trimming.

the back. A band of face is used for foot trimming.

Toilets in this style are made of Lansdowne, liberty satin, foulard, China sik, collenne, or any of the new slik-and-wool fabrics, with chiffon applique, lace bands of Persian embroidery or jeweled passementerie for trimming.

KANSAS FARMERS ABLE TO SAVE WHEAT CROP.

Sovernor Bailey Says There Is Shortage of Harvest Hands, but No Loss Will Result.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Topeka, Kas., July 2.-Governor Balley, Yesterday afternoon issued a warrant who to-day returned from a trip through | charging Mrs. Nevada Costley and Doctor the wheat belt, says that while there is a shortage of harvest hands, the number is sufficient to prevent loss to the farmers if the weather continues favorable.

"The Oklahoma harvest is over," said the Governor. "and hands from the Terri- gan street are responsible for the death of her home in this city from injuries and tory are now working toward Kansas. These hands will follow the harvest into the Dakotas. I talked to several Oklahoma men, who said they would remain in the houses examined were Doctor Morrish, who men, who said they would remain in the harvest field till late in the fall, winding up the work of the season in North Dakota. They said they had worked from Okiabona to the Dakotas every year for four years.

"The farners everywhere in the wheat belt can utilize more hands than they have but I heard of no damage for wan; of help while on my trip. Farmers meet the trains, and there is herce competition for the hands who alight from the cars.

"Every train into the wheat belt carries harvest hands. They are from all over the Middle West. In Pratt County I ran across man I went swimming with when a boy at Mount Carroll, Ill. He still lives there. He came to Kansas as a harvest hand just to have a "time."

NAVAL AND COALING BASES ARE SECURED.

Cuba Finally Signs Treaty Which Gives United States Perpetual Lease.

ISLE OF PINES TRANSFERRED.

Comes Under Absolute Sovereignty of New Republic-Rights of American Residents Are Fully Safeguarded.

Havana, July 2-The treaty covering the aval and coaling station bases and the reaty placing the Isle of Pines wholly under Culan sovereignty were signed to-day

The two treaties, which are the last of the six between the United States and Cuba, were subscribed in duplicate at the Secretary of State's office

The signers were Minister Squiers, Senor Garcia Montes, Secretary of the Treasury, and Acting Secretary of State in Senor Zal-do's absence. The others were Senor Pevia, Assistant Secretary of State; Senor Diego, Chief of the Department of Justice, the legation secretaries, and Mr. Squires's eldest

The Isle of Pines treaty was signed last. While turning over the island to the absolute sovereignty of Cuba, the treaty safeguards the rights and privileges of the American residents on the island as though they were on American territory.

Property and judicial and educational rights are especially guaranteed, as well as the conveniences for reference to and resignation of property and other public business. It is pointed out that the American landholders are better off in respect to taxation than they would be under United States sovereignty. TROUBLE OVER STATIONS.

There were practically no difficulties or delays in reporting an agreement on the subject of the Isle of Pines treaty, but the naval stations lease was the subject of long and tedious negotiation.

President Paima and Mr. Squiers could easily have reached an agreement, but the President consulted numerous Senators, Congressmen and others, whose opinions carried considerable weight, with the result that many suggestions were made and some that many suggestions were made and some misunderstandings occurred. The question of smuggaing was especially slow in settle-ment, the Cubana proposals being so ex-acting as to be impracheable.

The occupation of the mayal and coaling stations will be perpetual, the rental price being purely nominal and based on the cost of acquiring the stations and sites by the Cuban Government, the United States ad-of acquiring the stations and sites by the Cuban Government, the United States ad-vancing any money necessary for the pur-chase of private lands at Guantanamo and chase of private lands at Guantanamo and Bahia Honda.

The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations is delaying the ratification by postponing action on the freaty, signed February 16, conceiling the two naval stations to the United States. The reason the committee gives out is that it is desirable to await the report of the joint commission of United States and Cuban engineers, which is now engaged marking out the site for the large station at Guantanama.

President Palma and the leading administration Senators maintain that all the treaties will be ratified before the adjournment of Congress.

HOW WE HELP TO DO IT.

By our liberal inducements in the way of free gas connections, all are able to

COOK WITH GAS.

This not only gives you a more scientific and modern method, but gas fuel is cheaper than coal fuel-and much cleaner. A clean kitchen means a clean home-a clean home means a clean yard-a clean yard means a clean city. Full information at
